PROGRAMS FOR SCHOOLS

Written By Kids Publishing Company offers two great options to support your existing literacy and anti-bullying programs. Additionally, we also supply books to non-profits and educational institutions at a discounted rate.

Option #1: “Finding The Story In You” This is a 3 week program that teaches children how to plan, write and illustrate their very own story. The purpose of this program is to guide children down the path of authorship, while simultaneously focusing the content of their stories around a specific subject determined by you. Upon completion of this program parents and participants can choose to have their story published and printed in a hard copy form. If a story meets our STTRB criteria it could be featured in this catalog as part of our promotion to raise money for WBKPC scholarships. Qualified Participants may be eligible to receive WBKPC scholarships.

Option #2: We provide interactive storytelling with a purpose, followed up by a question and an answer session. We use pre-approved Written By Kids materials that relate to current and specific social issues created by kids from their own perspectives, to educate and motivate young people. This serves as a great dialog opener and the content can be modified for the appropriate age, reading and comprehension level for grades K-12.

STORYTELLING

Storytelling is a ‘past-time’ that was, and is crucial to the development of youth and adults. Historically many cultures passed down very important advice through storytelling, and WBKPC desires to do the same thing. Our storytellers engage children by using funny voices and props to make it an interactive and memorable experience. This style of storytelling is ideal for children Pre-K through 3rd grade but it can benefit children of all ages. The books we read cover an array of very relevant topics that children and adults can benefit from. Many of these books have discussion questions at the end of the story, that are meant to focus the discussion on specific topics like Bullying and making good choices. Join hands today with WBKPC and help restore justice to bullied children through literacy. Be sure to take a moment to complete our storyteller feedback form!
